ANNEXURE.

RULES FOR THE ARRANGEMENT, PRESERVATION AND DESTRUCTION OF RECORDS IN THE SURVEY DEPARTMENT.

The records of all the offices of the Survey Department shall be preserved in the record-rooms of the Survey Headquarters office, which is also known as the Survey Record Office.

2. All completed records and files of papers shall be sent to the Record Office by the respective offices of the Department, properly arranged, stitched and provided with facing sheets and lists of contents. Lists of contents shall be put up with the record of every file as it originates or is begun to be formed, and each paper will be entered in the list as it is filed with the record. Incomplete and undisposed of files should not under any circumstances be sent to or received by the Record Office for custody.

3. It shall be the duty of heads of branches or Huzur Head Karkuns, as the case may be, to see that papers are arranged in proper sequence and entered in the list of papers, as a file is being formed, so that when the file is complete, it may at once be sent to the Record Office.

4. At the end of each month, the officers above mentioned shall satisfy themselves after examination that all records disposed of during that period are properly arranged, stitched and provided with facing sheets and lists of contents.

5. The records of the offices of the Survey Superintendent and Deputy Superintendent shall be sent to the Record Office at the end of every calendar year. They shall be accompanied by a list of the records so transmitted, which shall be returned by the official in charge of the Record Room with due endorsement of receipt. The head of any office, however, may retain in his office for any longer period such of the records and files as may be required by him.

6. The records of the Head-quarters office proper shall also be sent as prescribed above for custody in the Record Rooms.

7. Records and papers of Field Establishments shall be forwarded to the Record Office during the monsoon season as specified below :—

(1) All survey records of such of the resurveyed villages as are completed should be sent at the end of every month on the week days specified hereunder or on the next office day when any of these happens to be a holiday.—

Last Monday	...	A Establishment.
Last Wednesday	...	B Do
Last Friday	...	C Do
Last Saturday	...	M Do

(2) The Assistant Superintendents should satisfy themselves as far as possible that no survey records of any resurveyed village remain uncompleted at the close of the monsoon season.

(3) All files of papers disposed of during any year should be sent for custody in the Records Office before the Establishments leave the headquarters for field work in that year.

8. Registers should be maintained in the offices of the Superintendent, the Deputy Superintendent and also in the Headquarters Office, to show what papers were sent and when they were sent to the Record Rooms for custody and what papers were retained in the office under the orders of the Officer in charge.

9. Field Establishments shall continue the present system of forwarding papers with pherists in duplicate, one of which shall be returned to the officer concerned with due acknowledgment of the receipt of papers. The pherists will ultimately be filed in the Record Office along with the other records of the establishments.

10. All records received for custody in the Record Office shall be entered in a register maintained for the purpose and arranged as indicated below.

11. The accompanying list shows what records are to be permanently preserved and what preserved for definite periods.

12. Separate shelves in the record racks shall be allotted for different classes of records as noted in the list referred to in the preceding rule.

13. Among the records to be permanently preserved, the following shall be arranged by villages according as they relate to original survey and settlement or to revision survey and settlement :—

1. Tippan, Pakka and Prati books.
2. Registers (statements of measurements and classification details regarding each survey number in a village), Darwaris and Bagayet Takhtas.
3. Kachcha, Pakka and Nakkal Nakasas.
4. Sarasari Patrikas.
5. Akarbands and Faisal Patrikas.
6. Rajinamas.
7. Mutchalikas.

A list of villages arranged according to hoblis and serially numbered shall be maintained for each taluk. Records arranged according to villages should be entered under different headings in this list or Dehajhada, which serves as an index to such records.

No. 37-2—E. A. G., dated 12th July 1916.

The remaining records of the class, referred to in this rule, shall be classified according to subject matter and arranged chronologically. Each file should be complete in itself and contain all the papers bearing on any single subject, properly arranged and stitched into a book with a thick outer cover and a list of contents.

All these records will be preserved in dafters and each dafter will have a list of records contained therein.

14. Records preserved for definite periods shall be classified according to the periods of preservation, so that the papers of each class may be kept together and placed in daftars in the shelf or shelves allotted for the class. They should be arranged according to years and subjects in order to facilitate the picking up of references and the destruction of time-expired papers. Re-arrangement according to periods of preservation need not be insisted upon in cases where classification by villages with a subsidiary chronological or other arrangement has been adopted.

15. Accounts, Registers, Periodical returns, Gazettes and similar papers should as far as possible be kept in separate daftars.

16. The daftars shall be numbered and registers maintained to show the files contained in each daftar.

The receipt of the papers shall be acknowledged by the officer or official to whom they are furnished. When they are returned the fact will be noted in the register and the papers restored to their respective daftars, the slips placed for them being removed. The slips should be returned or intimation otherwise given of the restoration of the papers, to the officer or official concerned.

18. Records, books, papers and registers chosen for destruction should be burnt in the presence of the Officer in charge of the Record Office who will obtain the previous orders of the Superintendent, Revenue Survey, for such destruction on lists describing them previously submitted to him. A register shall be kept of all such records destroyed, giving briefly the substance of the records and their dates, and noting the last "To" or "From" number, if any. A note of destruction shall also be entered against the respective entries of the papers they relate to in the "From" and "To" registers.

19. Records shall be destroyed once a year only in the month of March. The destruction made in March in any year shall comprise papers, which have passed their time limit calculated from the calendar year of their disposal.

20. Any document which may at any time be found on personal inspection by the Officer in charge of the Record Office to have become entirely useless or illegible by age or become useless from other causes may, with the sanction of the Superintendent, Revenue Survey, be destroyed, a memorandum of the fact being kept in its place, together with a copy of the document prepared afresh where this is possible, or with the summary of its contents, if ascertainable, signed by the Superintendent.

21. Important documents, and especially such as are crumbling through age, should be separated from the files to which they belong and preserved carefully in a box, an accurate copy, signed by the Superintendent, being substituted for them in the file.

22. The Survey Superintendent may in his discretion direct the retention for a longer period or permanently of any records included under classes II to VI in the appended list for any special reason. Similarly the Superintendent may, at his discretion, order the destruction of such records as are of a purely routine character though included in class I.

Payment of Arrears due to Heirs of Deceased Contractors.

No. 1427-39—P. W. 6604-16, DATED 4TH JULY 1916.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

READ—

Superintending Engineer Southern Circle's No. 9722—G. 1735 dated the 7th December 1915, to the Chief Engineer.

Order No. 1427-39—P. W. 6604-16, dated 4th July 1916.

At present, amounts due to deceased contractors cannot be paid to their heirs, unless heirship certificates are produced by them. It is represented that, in the majority of cases, the heirs of deceased contractors happen to be widows and illiterate poor orphans and the amounts due to them are so small that it is found not worth while going to the Civil Court to obtain the required certificate, especially as the trouble and expense involved thereby are disproportionate to the amounts due. The Comptroller, Public Works Branch, is also of opinion that the inconvenience represented is real and some remedy to remove it is desirable.

2. With this view, it is suggested that the procedure for the payment of arrears of salary due to deceased officers, prescribed in Government Order No. 886-901—6314-9 dated the 9th December 1897, may be followed in the case of deceased contractors also. According to this procedure, arrears up to Rs. 500 may be paid without a Court certificate after such enquiry into the right and title of the claimants as the officer responsible for the payment may deem sufficient.

3. The Government Advocate states that in law there is nothing to preclude the debtor from paying the debt to the person claiming to be the heir to the estate of the deceased, but he does so at his risk, for, in case that person happens not to be the real heir, such payment to him will not bind the real heir. If, however, sufficient care is taken to ascertain that the claimant is the real heir before payment is made to him, the risk in practice is very small.

4. As the Executive Engineer cannot be cognizant of the relations of contractors where they come from outside, it would appear that in Bombay, in such cases, the certificate of the Amildar of the Taluk in which the deceased resided is taken. The same procedure may be adopted in Mysore also, in the case of amounts due to deceased contractors which do not exceed Rs. 500. As, however, the Amildar cannot be held personally liable for the correctness of the certificate, an indemnity bond (analogous to Appendix A of the Civil Account Code) should be taken from the payees in all such cases as an additional safeguard.

5. The Revenue Commissioner is requested to issue the necessary instructions to Amildars in view to their complying with applications for such certificates from the parties concerned.

No. 1483-89—P. W. 6924-30, DATED 13TH JULY 1916.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

(1) Government Order No. 395-433—P. W. 1941-79, dated the 27th February 1915.

* (2) Public Works Secretary's note dated the 24th November 1915.

* (3) Memorandum of the 5th January 1916 by Sir M. Visvesvaraya, Dewan of Mysore.

Order No. 1483-89—P. W. 6924-30, dated 13th July 1916.

The area of irrigation under the Cauvery channels situated below the Cauvery Reservoir is about 39,000 acres. Almost the whole of this area is under paddy cultivation. As the river runs very low in the summer months, and the consequent supply in the channels was hitherto uncertain, the area under sugar-cane has been only about 1,500 acres and this is confined to patches here and there and to low-lying plots where water could be got from wells to supplement the channel supply. The restrictions now placed on summer supply on account of the requirements of the power works at Sivasamudram has tended to still further curtail this area, the average extent under cane crop during the last three years being only about 1,000 acres.

2. With the construction of the Kannambadi Reservoir, this uncertainty about the supply in the channels will no longer exist. The restrictions placed on summer supply on account of the power works can also be removed and facilities afforded for raising valuable perennial crops like sugar-cane more extensively than has been possible in the past. It is expected that the reservoir can supplement the river supply so as to increase the extent under sugar-cane in this locality to about 7,000 acres.

3. A scheme of development based on the block system of irrigation has been outlined in the memorandum read above for extending the sugar-cane cultivation to about 7,000 acres, in the area irrigated by the existing channels situated below the reservoir as also that under the two low level channels drawing off direct from the reservoir.

4. Having regard to the necessity for economical and systematic regulation of water stored at enormous expense, the Government consider that extension of the perennial crop should be permitted under certain restrictions and that the scheme outlined in the annexed memorandum will attain the objects in view. They are accordingly pleased to accord approval to the introduction of this scheme in the area concerned and to the levy of additional water rate on that area, as noted in the memorandum. The Chief Engineer is requested to work out full details and submit complete proposals in good time so as to bring the scheme into operation from 1st January 1917.

5. Separate orders have been passed sanctioning the Revenue establishment detailed in the Public Works Secretary's note No. D. 167, dated 6th - 7th April 1916.

No. 1483-89—P. W. 6924-30, DATED 13TH JULY 1916.

6. The restrictions placed on summer supply to the Cauvery channels by the Government Orders referred to in the margin will be removed with effect from the date the scheme comes into operation.

ANNEXURE I.

PUBLIC WORKS SECRETARY'S NOTE DATED THE 24TH NOVEMBER 1915.

In your marginal remarks on Government Orders, dated the 11th February 1915, sanctioning a revised scale of establishment for the development and expansion of sugar-cane cultivation below the Cauvery Reservoir, you were pleased to direct that a report indicating:—

(1) the work done so far,

(2) the outlines of work to be carried out in future, and

(3) the form in which the results will be submitted to Government may be prepared and approval obtained thereto.

Accordingly, this preliminary note is drawn up and submitted.

2. The channels under which this expansion has to be secured are 7 in number as noted in the margin, commanding an aggregate extent of 38,971 acres yielding a revenue of Rs. 2,59,261.

	Extent in acres.
1. Chikdevarayasagar ...	14,245
2. Devaraya channel ..	2,022
3 Virjanadi	7,420
4. Rangaradoddi ...	762
5. Rajaparameswari ...	3,767
6 Ramaswami ...	8,075
7. Madhavamantri ...	2,680
Total ...	38,971

3. Present conditions.—Under existing conditions, the monsoon irrigation below these channels is limited by the available river flow in the months of September to December. On account of the physical configuration of the country along the Cauvery in Mysore, the storage of rainfall in the subsidiary valleys to supplement the scanty supply in the unfavourable months, is prohibitively costly. For these reasons, limitations are imposed on both the monsoon and summer irrigation in the valley.

The extent of perennial crops under the Cauvery channels below the reservoir during each of the five years ending 1912-13, has been only 899 acres, on an average, the maximum recorded being 1,280 acres in 1911-12. The present perennial irrigation may be put at 1,500 acres at the outset. Even for this small extent, supplies had to be stinted during the last six or seven years owing to the necessity of maintaining requisite supplies for the power works at Sivasamudram.

4. Conditions after the completion of the first stage of the reservoir.—These conditions will very soon alter. When the first stage of the reservoir is completed, it will be possible to extend the monsoon irrigation by about 25,000 acres and the area of perennial crop to 10,000 acres, i.e., one-fourth of the total area under command of the existing channels. Steps for securing this latter result relate to the expansion of sugar-cane cultivation in the valley as being the most paying of all varieties of perennial crops.

5. Measures necessary to secure this.—The following items of work have to be attended to, to achieve this object:—

(1) preparation of an index map showing the canals and villages whose lands are commanded by them, showing the principal outlets, branch channels, principal masonry works, etc., so as to give a general idea of the whole of the existing irrigation system under the canals below the reservoir,

(2) tracings of Revenue survey maps showing in detail the canals and their distributaries and lands under each outlet, those already cultivated with sugar-cane and lands fit for fresh cultivation with cane in distinct colours,

(3) complete statements of sluice discharges and atchkats both sluicewar and villagewar for all canals,

(4) abstract statements of the agricultural and irrigation statistics showing the gross area of the villages, areas commanded by the canals, area irrigated during the last three years, population, number of ploughs, carts and cattle and other agricultural resources of the villages,

(5) complete khetwar statements of survey numbers in the irrigated area of each village giving names of the holder, extent, assessment, etc.,

(6) individual mutchalikas of raiyats who are willing to cultivate sugar-cane and pay the extra assessment that may be imposed by Government and an abstract statement for each village showing the total area thus taken up for perennial crops,

(7) surveys, plans and estimates for the improvement of the canals to admit of proper discharge and scientific control of distribution,

(8) statement of contribution expected,

(9) statement of increase of revenue below each canal and the anticipated return on capital outlay under (7),

No 11683 89—P W 6921-30, dated 13th July 1916

(10) statement of new cart tracks, bridges etc, necessary to afford facilities for transport of manure and produce and

(11) subsidiary help needed to induce the raiyats to go in for cane cultivation on a large scale, such as Takavi advances, seed and manure depots and experimental farms

6 Work done so far — These are the lines on which investigations were ordered to be conducted in the case of each of the canals below the reservoir

This investigation except under items 4 to 6 and 8 to 11 has been completed for three of the channels —

(1) Bangaradoddi
(2) Vinjamuri, and
(3) Devarov

Similar investigations still remain to be started and completed for the rest of the channels noted in paragraph 2 A sample project for the Bangaradoddi canal is herewith submitted

7 Proposals —Cultivation of sugar-cane in each village is proposed to be restricted to 75 per cent of the land commanded, the remaining 25 per cent being excluded on account of lands which are water logged or higher than F S L of the channel or situated far from the channel, small variations being allowed for on considerations of populousness or otherwise of the villages and the importance of the locality

The selected lands have been divided into three blocks One of the three blocks is proposed to be under cane crop each year by rotation, thus securing 25 per cent or one-fourth of the total extent for perennial crop each season

8 Results The results of these investigations for the three channels mentioned are summarised in the accompanying statement Similar statements will be prepared this summer for the remaining four channels

In the statement above referred to contribution on lands selected for cane crop is assumed at Rs 25 per acre and on lands not enjoying this benefit at Rs 8 As regards the increased assessment, it is taken at Rs 5 for lands on which sugar-cane is cropped in any year and on ider lands Rs 4, as a continuous supply is assured, but these figures can be considered by rough and approximate as the exact rates of contribution and water rate have to be settled by competent Revenue officers Under these cautious estimates, the total cost of improvements to the three channels which have been investigated is estimated to amount to Rs 1,29,000, while the contributions expected stand at Rs 1,89,632 or Rs 60,000 more than the outlay required to be incurred on the works

The improvement in revenue on the basis of the very conservative rates of increase in assessment is anticipated to amount to Rs 9,367 which is 7 3 per cent of the outlay of Rs 1,29 000 even if we neglect the amount of contributions expected

A sum of Rs 10 lakhs may be needed for the factories, seed depots, demonstration farms and Takavi advances, to develop the scheme and realise our anticipations of 10,000 acres of sugar-cane cultivation below the reservoir Additional recurring expenditure for the maintenance of these channels is estimated at Rs 3,361

Thus, for these three channels, a capital expenditure of Rs 1,29,000 and a recurring expenditure of Rs 3,361 will be needed Against this, the amount of contributions will be Rs 1,89,000 and increase of revenue Rs 9,367 What these will be as regards the remaining four channels has yet to be ascertained and a complete and comprehensive note including all points necessary to be placed before Government for orders can be compiled only after full and complete information both technical and financial has been collected

9 Future action —A fairly good start has been given to the technical part of the investigations and the projects for the improvement of the three channels will be scrutinised, one by one, expeditiously and submitted for sanction, but, in the meanwhile, it is necessary to compile the necessary Revenue and Agricultural statistics and obtain raiyats' mutchalkas, in connection with the three channels, about which, the technical information has been compiled, Before this is finished, similar investigations will have been completed by June 1916 for the remaining canals and the whole scheme for the expansion of sugar-cane cultivation may be expected to be ready by December 1916, just in time for the hot weather irrigation in 1917, when alone we shall be in a position to provide a supply from the reservoir.

10 Additional Agency —To compile the necessary revenue and agricultural statistics and obtain mutchalkas from raiyats, a special revenue establishment is necessary

The regular Amildars of the taluks have multifarious duties and will not be able to do this work rapidly and well

No. 1483-89—P. W. 6924-30, DATED 13TH JULY 1916.

		Rs.
One Amildar on Rs. 200 per mensem with allowance of Rs. 30 for one year		230
Two Shekdars at Rs. 25+10 each		70
Two clerks (Rs. 45+9)		54
Two peons at Rs. 8 each		16
Contingencies and temporary establishment		30 per month or Rs. 4,800 for a year.
Total ...		400

Sanction to the posting of this establishment may be given early to enable the scheme being matured expeditiously.

11. In the meanwhile, approval of Government is solicited—

Points on which order or approval of Government is necessary.

(1) to the line of investigations indicated in paragraphs 5 and 7,

(2) to the deputation of a revenue Agency costing Rs. 400 a month to complete the investigations about rates of contribution, water rate and the compilation of the necessary agricultural statistics and to obtain mutchalikas from raiyats interested in the cultivation of sugar-cane.

12. Correct financial forecasts of the scheme indicating the liabilities of Government and the returns that may be anticipated from the scheme will be possible only after the settlement of these matters in the Revenue Department.

ANNEXURE II.

NOTE ON THE DEVELOPMENT OF SUGAR-CANE CULTIVATION UNDER THE CAUVERY CHANNELS BELOW THE KANNAMBADI RESERVOIR.

Total extent of sugar-cane permissible.—The area of irrigation under the Cauvery channels situated below the reservoir is about 39,000 acres. The area that will be brought under irrigation below the two low level canals, which derive their supply direct from the reservoir, is about 5,000 acres. It may be assumed that, of this total of 44,000 acres, one-sixth, or nearly 7,500 acres, will be available for growing sugar-cane. As much more (7,500 acres) may be set apart for hot weather crops.

2. Extent to be allotted to each village and cultivator.—On this basis, each village may be allowed to grow sugar-cane on one-sixth of the irrigated area within its limits. To provide for triennial rotation in blocks, three times this area, or half of the total irrigated area, will have to be included in blocks.

Each cultivator who has land under command will have his share of perennial crop area assigned to him in about the same proportion. Share lists may be prepared for each village on this basis. Each share will show the sugar-cane area as well as the total block area, the latter being three times the sugar-cane area.

3. Minimum block area.—The block area of each cultivator being thus determined, a number of cultivators may combine and put their shares together and form blocks of land, each measuring not less than 50 acres and not more than 300 acres in extent. The blocks will then be surveyed and each cultivator's share therein measured and subdivided. At first, the scheme will be on a voluntary basis.

4. Date from which supply may be given.—From 1st January 1917, water may be given to all the blocks which may be formed and mapped out before that date.

5. Water rate.—The extra water rate which it is proposed to charge, in addition to the present wet assessment, on all lands for which water is given for sugar-cane cultivation, will be :—

(i) In the case of owners of lands who have hitherto been growing sugar-cane :

(a) Rs. 5 per acre for sugar-cane, and

(b) Rs. 4 per acre for other hot weather crops.

(ii) In the case of owners of lands on which sugar-cane was not cultivated in recent years :

(a) Rs. 7 per acre for sugar-cane, and

(b) Rs. 5 per acre for other hot weather crops.

No. 1483-89—P. W. 6924-3-0, DATED 13TH JULY 1916.

These rates shall be in force for six years from 1st January 1917 and subject to revision thereafter. The additional average rate for the block area will be Rs. 4 or 3 per acre according or not as the owner has been growing sugar-cane in recent years.

6. Preparation of projects for the channels.—The extra rate for lands below the new low level canals will be Rs. 5 per acre for six years as already approved by Government and subject to revision thereafter. The general features of the scheme being thus settled, necessary plans and estimates may be prepared with the aid of the existing establishment. These should include:—

(b) Detailed plans and estimates for the improvement of each channel. (Sample plans and estimates may be prepared for one or two villages and approval obtained before attempting the rest).

(d) Estimates for the maintenance of channels including the cost of controlling and distribution establishment.

(e) The lines on which it is proposed to regulate the water distribution.

7. Establishment.—The necessary Revenue establishment including an Amildar will be provided. The Assistant Engineer already employed and the Amildar should work together and complete the scheme by September next, so that water may be given from 1st January 1917.

8. Programme of work.—The Chief Engineer is requested to draw up a programme of work and submit the same in a fortnight for the information and approval of Government. The programme may also specify the anticipated progress on the Kannambadi dam as regards storage.

Amalgamation of the Offices of the Agent, Engineer-in-Chief, Chief Store-Keeper and Railway Secretariat into one Office.

No 12-15—Ry. F. 230-16-17, dated 1st July 1916.

RAILWAY DEPARTMENT.

Read—

Government Order No. G. 14069-120—G. M. 423-14-1, dated 12th June 1915, sanctioning certain arrangements for the Administration of the Railway Department.

2. Notes Nos. 521 and 545, dated 16th and 24th March 1916, respectively, from the Secretary for Railways submitting for sanction proposals for amalgamating the offices of the Agent, Engineer-in-Chief and the Railway Secretariat into one office and proposing a redistribution of work among the officers of the department.

Order No. 12-15—Ry. F. 230-16-17, dated 1st July 1916.

The Railway Secretary brings to the notice of Government that since the reversion of Mr. C. Dove Wilson to the British service, the office of the Agent, Engineer-in-Chief and Secretary to Government has been held by one officer and that the existence of separate offices had led to unnecessary formal correspondence considerable duplication of work and avoidable extra expenditure. He therefore suggests the amalgamation of all the three offices into one at a total cost of Rs. 4,777⅓ per mensem as per statement appended.

2. With the savings thus effected, the Railway Secretary proposes a redistribution of work among the several officers of the Railway Department with a view to provide for proper control, to secure greater efficiency, to make adequate preparations for future surveys of new lines and the construction of lines in progress and to arrange for their maintenance up to the requisite standard. He further states that it is necessary to organise the various branches of the Railway service from now, so that the establishment may be trained in all respects to be able to take on itself the additional work likely to fall to its share in the near future.

3. Government agree generally with the proposals made by the Railway Secretary as they provide for adequate supervision and increased efficiency while at the same time promoting economy. As there will not be sufficient work for a Superintendent of Way and Works for some months to come, they consider it unnecessary to make that appointment now. They, however, think that a better distribution of work under existing conditions would be to organise the construction of new lines and the maintenance of open lines as one branch and surveys for new projects, as another. The latter, comprising as it does surveys of about 270 miles, is considered sufficient to engage the full time services of one officer.

4. Government are accordingly pleased to sanction the following appointments as shown in the statement appended:—

Rao Bahadur Mr. K. Krishnaiengar to be Agent and Secretary for Railways. Pay Rs. 1,400 plus Rs. 100 allowance for Secretariat work.

Mr. T. Lakshminarasimha Rao to be Deputy Agent and Under Secretary and Chief Store-Keeper. Pay Rs. 500—$\frac{25}{1}$—650 plus Rs. 100 allowance for doing the duties of the Under Secretary.

Mr. Y. K. Ramachandra Rao to be Engineering Assistant to Agent. Pay of his grade in the Public Works Department plus Rs. 100 allowance.

No. 12-15—Ry. F. 230-16-17, dated 1st July 1916.

Mr. P. S. Naidu to be Registrar and Secretary to Agent. Pay Rs. 250 plus Rs. 50 personal allowance.

Mr. D. G. Dani to be Superintending Engineer to be employed on Railway Construction and the maintenance of open lines worked by the State in Mysore. He will also help the Agent in such other matters as may be referred to him. Pay according to his grade pay in British India plus Rs. 25 per cent besides contribution towards leave and pension allowances.

Mr. H. D. Rice, Executive Engineer, Mysore-Arsikere Railway, to be Officiating Superintending Engineer (local) and to be in charge of Railway Surveys in the State. This appointment will take effect after Mr. Rice has settled the accounts of the work done so far in his Division.

5. The establishment now sanctioned for the combined office of the Agent and Secretary for Railways will be permanent but non-pensionable. Such of the employees as are already in the pensionable service of Government will remain so.

Correspondence ending with No. 185, dated 27th—29th November 1915 from the Engineer-in-Chief, State Railway Construction Department, submitting certain proposals in respect of the division of the cost of rolling stock on the combined system of the Bangalore-Chikballapur and Kolar District Railways.

2. Letter No. C. 198, dated 29th February 1916, from the President, District Board, Kolar, communicating the approval of the District Board to the proposals.

3. Letter No. 1597, dated 12th April 1916, from the Chairman, Bangalore-Chikballapur Light Railway Company, Ltd., communicating the approval of the Directors of the Company to the proposals for a period of three years only instead of five years as proposed.

Order No. 79-84—Ry. O. L. 3-16-17, dated 6th July 1916.

In order to work the entire loop from Bowringpet to Bangalore via Kolar and Chikballapur economically when opened for traffic, the Engineer-in-Chief proposes the following:—

(i) To begin with, the rolling stock on the combined system should be considered as joint stock as it is extremely difficult to keep the stock separate in the actual working of the entire loop.

(ii) The cost of rolling stock and all working expenses except New Minor Works should be fixed on a mileage basis to commence with and that the capital cost of Chikballapur Station between the Signals built by the Bangalore-Chikballapur Light Railway should be borne equally by each Railway as it will be a joint station when the loop is opened for traffic.

(iii) After five years working, the capital cost of rolling stock can be re-adjusted on the basis of gross receipts and that basis should then be adopted for the division of working expenses.

2. The above proposals have been considered by Government and they are pleased to direct that the mileage basis may be adopted as recommended for a period of three years only and that the question may be reconsidered thereafter and that the capital cost of the Chikballapur Station may be divided equally between the Bangalore-Chikballapur Light Railway Company and the District Board, Kolar.
